Business of the Month

Globe Meats Fresh Markets

Their name is actually rather telling, because this is more than just a butcher shop, this butcher shop has a global perspective and is evolving into one of the most comprehensive and cool businesses in Emery Village.

Globe Meats was established in 1974. Speaking with the Emery Village Voice this past week, Dante DiBiase , President of Globe Meats Fresh Market & Grill explained that "it's a family affair". Globe was begun by his father, Pasquale. His first store was Casa de Baby Beef, partnered with his uncle at Rogers and St. Clair in Toronto. They were one of the first in the GTA handling large wholesale orders, serving whole carcasses and freezer orders as well as the odd custom cut.

"We had Italian, Irish, Spanish and a mixture of ethnicities in the area, Dante said. "But eventually, the demographics of the area changed and we moved with our customers."

Globe moved north up the 400, as many of us have...and ended up at their location at Finch Ave. and Signet Dr. They took over an 8,600 square foot space in a historical building erected in the 1950s. The area had a shortage on local meat suppliers and Globe pushed for just that, soon becoming famous for their lamb. Dante has grown up with the business, starting when he was 13.

Memories of these times are all pictured on Globe's nostalgia wall, taken from their family photo album. "I remember running the deli with my grandfather, we'd be here on the weekends, grating cheese, pushing shopping carts, discarding boxes...we learned the business from the ground up."
